Third Oilmen's trophy for Art Britton

Art Britton made history repeat itself yet again, as he accepted his third Elk Point Oilmen's Golf Tournament championship trophy in four years at the close of this weekend's proceedings. Eighty eight golfers took part in the 12th Annual tournament.

Britton shot two 37s in the first two rounds Saturday, along with a 39 and a 36 Sunday for a 142 total, 9 ahead of runner-up Clarence Romanick with 37, 41, 38 and a one-under-par 35 for a 151 total. Art Lypka with 157 and Ernie Poitras with 158 were third and fourth respectively. Highland Corod Inc. sponsored the Championship Flight trophy.

History also repeated itself for Pat Nairn, who won his second 1st Flight in as many years for the BMW Pump Inc. trophy. This was a very close flight, with Nairn winning over Tom Parenteau in a tiebreaking extra hole, and Brian Anderson taking third over Blaine Youngsberg by a coin toss when the two were still tied after a tiebreaking round.

This year, the Championship and First Flight players started off together and played their two Saturday rounds before being divided by scores into the two flights.

The 2nd Flight saw George Hahn first for the Leyen Oilwell Servicing trophy, with Phil Shankowski second, Merle James third and Art Scott fourth. In the 3rd, it was Roland Gascon taking home the E-Can Oilfield Services trophy, with Ernie Scheelar second, Pat Ellard third and Larry Stratford fourth. Ellard also came very close to winning the elusive Hole In One prize, but ended up a mere 14 inches short of a new car.

Ted Yarmuch was the 4th Flight winner of the Leeway Heavy Oil Ltd. trophy, with Al Early second, Brian MacKinnon third and Joe MacKinnon fourth. Curtis Chomlak captured the Tarsands trophy in the 5th Flight, followed by Dale Hockley in second spot, Carl Nelson third and Paul Arndt fourth.

Sixth Flight winner was Doug Olstad, taking home the Petrolite Canada Inc. trophy, with Jerry Kopeck second, Ed Willerton third and Dave Friesen fourth.

Scott Bannister topped the 7th Flight for the Klinger's Oilfield Services Ltd. trophy, with Shane Smith second, Pat Brodbin third and Rick Patroch fourth.

In the 8th, it was Al Saulou in the spotlight for the Pyramid Electric Corporation trophy, Tom McDougall second, Morry Heathcote third and Ron Friesen fourth.

Alvin Fry was the 9th Flight winner of the Shamrock Valley Enterprises trophy, with Ed Hardy second, Dale Canard third and Lionel Van Peteghen fourth.

Mike Meyenburg won the 10th, with his trophy sponsored by Lanco Well Servicing, with second place going to Roland Moneta, third to Courtney Ward and fourth to Terry Ostapovich.

The 11th Flight was sponsored by Tuboscope Vetco and won by Don Pavka. Larry Gingell was second, Don Turner third and Murry Nielsen fourth.

Hearty thanks were expressed by the tournament organizers to all the golfers who took part, and special thanks went to Joanne Laflamme, Evelyn Babcock, Mark Woytkiw, Bob Lee, the clubhouse staff, Pat Nairn and Larry Gingell for their special efforts toward making the weekend a big success.

Quebec 4-Hers enjoy a taste of western living

Ten members of the Lachute, Quebec 4-H Club visited 4-Hers in the St. Paul, St. Lina, Goodridge and Elk Point areas last week on the second portion of a summer exchange program, and enjoyed a number of typically Albertan activities during their stay.

Two of the teens will be going back east boasting of their prowess in the rodeo arena. Jake Heatlie and Chris Rodger teamed up with Tim Havener of Elk Point to enter the Businessman's Wild Cow Milking competition at Willingdon Rodeo. A well placed loop by Havener, coupled with the cattle handling and milking expertise of the two dairy-project members, earned the three handsome silver trophy buckles. Another team, consisting of 4-H parent Albert Naber, Elk Point, and Quebeckers Mary and Karen Clark, competed in the same event Sunday, but with less success.

Some of the group attending Willingdon Fair on Saturday also showed cattle in the Junior Showmanship category, with Tim Havener receiving a third place ribbon.

While one group was in Willingdon, the others were taking in fairs in Elk Point and Glendon. Cheryl Ross of the Goodridge club, Mary Clark of Quebec and one of the 4-H mothers teamed up to take part in the Farmers' Olympics at Glendon, testing their prowess at round bale rolling, feed sack packing and spike pounding.

Both host and visiting 4-H members were guests at an Alberta Cattle Commission barbecue at Lac Bellevue early in the week, while Tuesday featured tours of the Ference Game Farm, Norcen Energy

A GREAT ALBERTAN - Sid Holthe, who was designated "A Great Albertan" last year, was presented with a commemorative plaque by MLA Paul Langevin during the August 14 Cenotaph dedication ceremonies. Langevin expressed his regrets at being unable to attend the earlier event which was held to honor Holthe's receipt of the prestigious designation. He added that Holthe's involvement in the cenotaph project shows that he is continuing his long tradition of community service.

Cansafe expanding

The Elk Point-based safety training firm, Cansafe Inc., is expanding its services, both into our neighboring province and on an international basis. They are opening offices in Richmond, BC and in Amman, Jordan on September 1.

The Richmond office will offer the same training and consulting services now provided in Alberta and Saskatchewan by their Elk Point and Lloydminster offices. The overseas office will undertake discussions with a number of companies in the Middle East, regarding provision of similar services in that area.

Thank You

We wish to express our appreciation to every Government, association, corporation, business, and individual, whose donated funds or services enabled the construction of our new Cenotaph.

We thank all parade participants, the RCMP, 4 Wing Piping Band and Bugler, Camp Wainwright Marching Quarter Guard, Legion Members from other Branches, members of local Associations, individuals, and V.I.P.'s who marched with us or received the salute on the Reviewing Stand.

The messages presented by Guest Speakers and our Chaplain were very appropriate and assured a meaningful ceremony.

The solemn laying of wreaths and accompanying Remembrance ceremony served to confirm that "We Do Remember Them."

The excellent lunch prepared and served by the Pioneer Circle President, Committee, and others, and the donated squares and cakes, were very much appreciated.

We thank everyone who attended the unveiling and dedication ceremony on August 14, whether as participants or guests, as well as the media for coverage, and trust that the completed Cenotaph will reflect the high standards of this community.

Breakfast, lunch programs may be in jeopardy

By Cathy Weetman
Staff Writer

Breakfast and lunch programs at Heinsburg School may be in jeopardy due to a lack of funding.

On August 15, Heinsburg School Principal Lorne Young appeared at the St. Paul Education Region #1 Board of Trustees meeting to express his concern about the two programs. He explained that in the past, funding to a tune of $4,000 to $5,000 was provided by the County of St. Paul out of the General Revenue Fund. With regionalization of the school divisions, he added, there are now no extra funds with which to operate the hot lunch program.

Young said that the hot lunch program has been running in the school for the past three years and provides lunches for students in elementary, junior and senior high school.

In addition to the hot lunch program, a breakfast program has also been running, staffed and funded by volunteer parents and teachers.

Young said that he would consider any possibilities to keep the programs running, such as charging a minimum amount per student or running the programs strictly for elementary students. This could cost 60% of what the program did last year.

He said that regardless of what decision would be made at this meeting, the lunch program could still run until at least October.

Trustees subsequently passed a motion to request that Administration explore other sources of revenue to at least provide a minimal food program for 1995/96.

Wednesday saw the teens back in the Elk Point area for a ride on the Birch Hill Queen with Vince Behr piloting them down the scenic North Saskatchewan, and later gathering at Tim Havener's home for a barbecue, tours of his strawberry u-pick operation, western dance lessons instructed by Guy and Sharon Brosseau, and a slice of Tim's 16th birthday cake.

Thursday the group planned to visit the Ross family's ostrich farm at Goodridge before their windup banquet at Westcove. Friday's schedule included visits to the Ukrainian Village, West Edmonton Mall and the Legislative Buildings before the Quebec group left for home.

The local group had a similarly busy schedule during their visit to Quebec, July 24 to August 1. They visited Old Montreal, the SOS Labyrinth maze, attended an Expos ball game, saw the Parliament Buildings in Ottawa, the Canadian Mint, the Science and Technology Museum, a sugar camp, the Hydro Quebec dam, the Argenteuil Museum and a red deer farm.

Local 4-Hers taking part in the exchange were Jason Boorse of St. Paul Multi Club, Tim Havener, Robyn Danyluk and David Naber of Elk Point, Joy Ambler, Jeremy Janz and Cheryl Ross of Goodridge, and Churyl Ouellette, Shelora Ouellette and Yvette Ouellette of St. Lina.

Their Quebec visitors were Mary Clark, Karen Clark, Carole Berry, Anne Berry, Kelly Seary, Tanya Plummer, Chris Rodger, John Paulsen, Jake Heatlie and Jeff Heatlie, all of the Lachute 4-H Club, where they are involved in garden, homemaking, square dancing and dairy projects.

TIC Talk

By Sherry Pelech
Tourist Information Clerk

The Tourist Information Centre (TIC) received a unique request in the mail the other day. We got a postcard from someone in Michigan asking for a postcard with a picture of Peter Fidler. She says she "is completing a postcard collection of famous Canadian statues." We were gratified and happy to learn that our own Peter Fidler is now a "famous Canadian statue."

Peter Fidler has been relegated to a position of obscurity in our history books for too many years despite his important maps, surveys and discoveries and his wonderfully detailed journals. Most of the prominent men of the fur trade, after serving a few years with the Hudson's Bay Company or the North West Company, retired to the east or back home to London where they wrote their memoirs. Peter Fidler returned home to England only once for a brief visit after coming to Canada in 1788. While his contemporaries made sure that everyone in London or Montreal knew of their exploits in the fur trade, Peter Fidler retired to the Red River in Manitoba and lived the rest of his life with his wife Mary in quiet anonymity.

So it is with a great deal of pleasure, we discover that he is now "a famous Canadian statue." At last, Peter Fidler has come out of obscurity and is now in the same lofty company as Vegreville's Easter Egg, Glendon's giant Pyrogy, Vilna's mushrooms and Andrew's duck.

*Peter, Peter,
Map surveyor,
Had a life,
But didn't convey it.
And now, because of
Incredible luck,
He's keeping company
With a giant duck.*

We are happy to inform you that as the 1995 season is winding down, and we have plenty of new Alberta maps left, we are offering them absolutely FREE to anyone who cares to come in and pick one up. (One per customer, please). We also have lots of other information left on Alberta, BC and Saskatchewan, so stop by and get ready for your fall weekend travel - or start planning for next year! There's lots of room left in our guest book for your signature.

Fun time at Fort George / Buckingham House

This summer's activities at Fort George/Buckingham House Interpretive Centre included a series of four Crafts for Kids sessions. Each of these afternoon events featured a wide variety of fur trade style crafts, from beading to creating miniature teepees and totem poles, outdoor activities such as stilt or board walking and fur trade -era games, hikes to the fort sites and snacks. The young visitors all thoroughly enjoyed their visits to an earlier era.

Elk Point teacher awarded fellowship in environmental education

EDMONTON - Elk Point teacher Lawrence Pidluzny of F. G. Miller Junior / Senior High School was recently awarded a Fellowship in Environmental Education (FEE) to participate in a 12-day institute learning about the mountain and foothills ecosystems.

Pidluzny was a member of a group of 22 Canadian teachers who travelled the province as part of the Saskatchewan River Education Institute, part of the Fellowships in Environmental Education program developed and organized by FEESA, An Environmental Education Society. The Saskatchewan River Education Institute, which ran from August 1-14, explored the Saskatchewan River Basin - supply, demand and use of surface and groundwater resources of Alberta.

As a Fellow (the term used to identify teachers admitted into the program), Pidluzny becomes part of a leadership network of environmental educators who take their new found knowledge and experience back to the classroom to help their students tackle current and complex environmental issues.

FIRST RACE OF THE FINALS -- for Buddy Bensmiller's Skoal Inc. outfit (right) saw him charging down to the finish line with a narrow lead on season leader Ray Mitsuing. Bensmiller won the race but not the day money, which went to Herman Flad of Bodo, Alberta.

Buddy Bensmiller first at Finals, second for CPCA season championship

Dewberry's Buddy Bensmiller totalled up the winning time for the four day Canadian Professional Chuckwagon Association Finals meet in Lloydminster this past weekend, but still couldn't rally enough points to get ahead of season leader Ray Mitsuing of Loon Lake, SK for the 1995 year-end championship.

Bensmiller and outriders Ross Knight and Wayne Wright finished second Thursday night, first Friday and Saturday night and fourth Sunday afternoon with his Skoal Inc. outfit for a total time of 5:00.80. His Saturday run, coming off the number 4 barrel, set a new track record of 1:14.30 for Halstead Downs. He capped off a great season, which saw him take the title for aggregate time in Calgary and the championship at Cheyenne Frontier Days, by winning the Fans' Choice Award at the Finals.

Ray Mitsuing finished the season with 275 points, 12.5 points ahead of Bensmiller. Brian Laboucane ended up third with 244 points. Bert Croteau, Grant Preece, Herman Flad, Luke Tournier, Rod

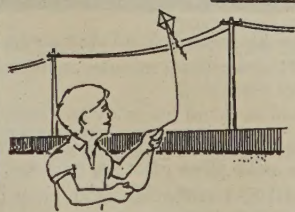

Salmond, Ray Croteau, Harold McCarthy, Stan Robertson, Wayne Knight, Jim Knight, Leo Tournier, Stu Napper and Wayne Dagg finished fourth through sixteenth. Wayne Dagg tied with Dennis McGilvery at 115.5 points for the coveted 17th spot, the final placing to race at the 1996 Calgary Stampede, but McGilvery will be going to Calgary, based on his winnings over the season.

Watch next week for photos from the Finals.

NE Equestrian Team brings home the gold

By Charlene Baker
Equestrian Coach

The North East Alberta Zone 7 Western Equestrian Team was successful in bringing home several medals from the 1995 Summer Games held in Spruce Grove July 27 to 29.

On the Western Performance Team, Shanna Baker of Elk Point won a Gold medal in Western Riding, placing first all three days, plus a Silver medal in Trail, and a Bronze in Pleasure. Stacey Melnyk of Innisfree won a Gold medal in Equitation and tied for a Bronze in Pleasure.

The competition was very intense with several ties for placings going in to the third round of classes.

In the timed events, Mark Pobuda of Viking won a Gold medal in Pole Bending and a Bronze in Barrel Racing. Dawn Middaugh of Bonnyville won a Gold medal in Flag Picking, a Gold in Keyhole, and a Bronze in Pole Bending.

The Equestrian Team would like to thank and acknowledge the generous support of E-Can Oilfield Services, Shamrock Welding Ltd., Triple M Vacuum Trucks and Woody's Trophy who sponsored team jackets and the support of the Elk Point Ag Society Fairgrounds Arena where a majority of the riders have trained and participated in their individual events.

(Editor's Note: Sorry that last week's coverage omitted Miss Baker's Bronze medal in the Pleasure class. Our information was obviously incomplete.)

What's news at the library?

Summer readers wind up their world tour

By Michele Ducek
Librarian

It was movie time at the library as the kids in the summer reading program enjoyed popcorn and a video. On Tuesday the kids saw The Jungle Book and on Thursday we watched The Swan Princess. For the final week of READ AROUND THE WORLD we will explore Europe and try out a little Greek food. The draw for the t-shirts will be made during this week as well. At this point several of the children have entered and the art entries are on display at the library as are the t-shirts. Come in and check them out.

Lots of stuff for kids is new at the library:

Take a Hike by Sharon McKay and David McLeod tells you everything you need to know to get you started hiking; where to go, what to wear and take along, fun activities to try on the trail and at home.

Costume Crafts by Iain MacLeod-Brudenell is full of fun crafts activities you can try inspired by costumes and crafts from around the world.

Animal Crafts by Iain MacLeod-Brudenell shows you how to make a variety of animals from around the world.

Food Crafts by Chris Deshpande explores food and items made of or about food from around the world.

Festival Crafts by Chris Deshpande has crafts based on holidays and festivals like Mardi Gras, Kwanzaa, New Years and many more.

The Land of the Big Red Apple by Roger Lea McBride sees Laura and Almanzo Wilder, with their daughter

Rose, settled into Rocky Ridge Farm in the Ozarks.

If all the time zones meet at the North Pole, what time is it there? This question is the basis of Time Ghost by Welwyn Wilton Katz, a time-travel mystery set in the not-so-distant future.

When Elspeth the Clown insists on performing for a very sick friend, Max is sure that this is the wrong thing to do in Past Tense by Ken Roberts.

LIBRARY CALENDAR:

Tuesday and Thursday mornings, 10:30 a.m. - noon: Read Around the World Summer Reading Program.

Friday, September 8, 1995: Storytime resumes at 10:30 a.m.

Saturday, September 9, 1995: The Friends of the Library are working a Saturday afternoon bingo.

DID YOU KNOW:

Women in the United States were given the right to vote on August 26, 1920. (Several states already allowed women to vote by this time.)

Seniors win at Summer Games

Early in July, the Northeastern Alberta Summer Games took place in Bonnyville. The seniors' groups in the area entered various competitions, such as floor curling, bocci ball, carpet bowling, military whist, etc.

The military whist competition took place at the Seniors Centre in Fort Kent. The Elk Point team placed third and were presented with the bronze medals by a representative of the Alberta Senior Citizens Sports and Recreation Association. The team consisted of Irene Miller, Gwen Nelson, Margaret Clark and Morris Cooper.

Highlights of St. Paul Education Region Division #1 meeting

■ A committee was set up to meet with representatives of the North East Alberta Francophone Division #3 to resolve the issue of playground/property transfer of the St. Paul Elementary Community School.

■ A letter received from the steering committee of the St. Paul Family School Academy who are proposing a charter school within the St. Paul area indicated that henceforth they would bypass the Board and deal directly with the Minister of Education.

■ Alternatives for purchasing a maintenance shop which would house the school maintenance functions and transportation repair and service functions were discussed at length. The Facilities Committee will also be meeting with the County to discuss possible leasing arrangements.

■ The Board of Trustees was advised that an election forum for persons wishing to run for office in the fall election will be conducted by Alberta School Boards' Association in Bonnyville on September 5. The Board will circulate the advertisement through the schools.

■ The Board was advised that following a committee meeting with representatives from Plain Colony, the Colony will be splitting in the near future and a new school site will require furniture, resources and staff.

■ The Board discussed the fate of the Teen Mom's Day Care Program and the ability of all involved to access operational funding from any source. Trustees continue to be supportive of the program and funding seeking will continue. In the interim, the proposed facility at the St. Paul Regional High School, which was in the process of alteration, will be patched for interim use as storage and possible classroom space.

■ The 1996 Alberta Senior Citizens' Games Committee received a positive decision on use of gyms in Town of St. Paul schools for showers and washrooms and school grounds for parking of recreational vehicles. The games will be held in St. Paul on July 16-19, 1996.

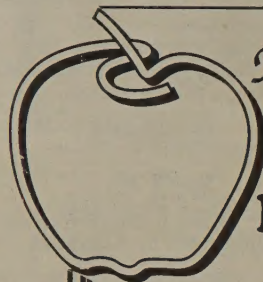

Warning out on 1993-94 Stihl Chain Saws

The insulation covering an ignition-system ground wire on some Stihl chain saws can wear through prematurely by rubbing against the housing. The bare ground wire can then ignite a fire if gasoline or some other combustible substance is present. At least one fire is reported to have been caused in this way.

Fifty thousand chain saws in the 1127 series, model numbers 029 and 039, manufactured between March 7, 1993 and August 12, 1994, are affected. Affected model 029 saws have serial numbers 226585676 and up, and affected model 039 saws, 64 cc. Both are considered "farm-duty" saws.

The manufacturer has sent recall notices to owners who have sent in their warranty cards; however, not all purchasers return these cards.

Anyone using these saws should stop using them immediately. Owners should return them to an authorized Stihl dealer for a free repair of the ground wire.
